

1 MR. BOND: Laws, morality or injure. I am
2 going to leave out the words, shall infringe the laws or 3 morality.

4 THE CHAIRMAN: Restate your motion so we have 5 it in the record.

6 MR. BOND: No person shall, under the color of 7 religion, disturb the good order, peace or safety of 8 the State or injure others in their natural civil or 9 religious rights.

10 THE CHAIRMAN: Any second?

11 MR. CASE: Second.

12 THE CHAIRMAN: Hr. Gentry?

13 MR. GENTRY: There are a lot of problems with, 14 natural, civil and religious rights, particularly, natural 15 and civil. I don't know what they are. I find we are 16 leaving the doors open to wide speculation as to what they 17 might be, and I am not so sure that -- well, that is 18 enough. I think those words are too vague.

19 MR. CLAGETT: Mr. Chairman, wouldn't you inter-
20 pret, civil, to mean, right of property, rights of contract, 21 rights of any person, personal rights, and rights would
