

1 MRS. BOTHE: Is it then necessary to keep the 2 first sentence in?

3 MR. CASE: Certainly. Then, Mr. Chairman,
4 the last clause of the second sentence should start off,
5 No person shall be --

6 THE CHAIRMAN: This is picked up after your 7 last motion. Any further discussion? If not, we will 8 suspend on consideration of the Declaration and resume 9 with Section 4 tomorrow and proceed with discussion of the 10 Fifth Report of the Committee on Legislative Department.

11 Dr. Bard?

12 DR. BARD: Okay. As far as Section 1 is con-
13 cerned, I suspect there won't be any discussion on that, 14 and the same would apply in reference to Section 2. This is 15 the Fifth Report, dated August 5, 1966.

16 THE CHAIRMAN: Fifth Report of the Committee on 17 Legislative Department.

18 DR. BARD: You may have two. I don't think 19 there will be any question, Mr. Chairman, concerning 20 Sections 1 or 2. These are perfunctory things in the main.
21 As for Section 3, it is now worded in conformance with
