

1 not unanimous on the 5 per cent deviation from the normal.

2 MR. MILLER: I merely meant by that, sir, that 3 we didn't debate the percentage in the request for re-
4 consideration. We were unanimous that we thought there
5 ought to be a guideline and frankly, I wouldn't care
6 whether it was 10 or higher. I feel it ought to be 7 somewhat flexible whereas some of our members, I think,
8 thought it ought to be only 3. But the principle that we 9 like and considered first is whether or not there should 10 be a guideline and then the percentage could be debated
11 or discussed more.

12 MR. SCANLAN: Could I amend the motion for re-
13 consideration by deleting the figure 5 and substituting 14 blank per cent? After all, when the Convention gets the 15 work of this Commission, it will be a year or so hence, 16 and by that time, maybe some of these guidelines will be 17 filled in by court decisions if that is the Commission's 18 preference.

19 So I would move to amend the consideration
20 to leave the percentage blank.

21 DR. BARD: I will accept that. The Committee
