

1 will accept that. We will talk about it.

2 THE CHAIRMAN: Dr. Bard, I have another ques-
3 tion. Do you have a comment with respect to Mr. Brooks'
4 point?

5 DR. BARD: No. The three of us were following
6 Mr. Brooks in this connection, and his arithmetic seemed 7 reasonable, but we think we would have to see it in
8 writing almost exactly as he stated it.

9 THE CHAIRMAN: Well, apart from the arithmetic,
10 his point, as I told him, was that the formula you used
11 would not produce the result that you seek in multi-member
12 districts.

13 DR. BARD: But it could if we decided upon a
14 formula, and this was the point which Mr. Brooks was 15 making.

16 MR. BROOKS: I am suggesting that the concept
17 be voted on, but not the language.

18 DR. BARD: This meets with our approval.

19 THE CHAIRMAN: Is there any further discussion?

20 MR. HOFF: It seems to me the deletion of 21 the percentage indicates the weakness of the whole
