3 this doesn't cover it.

4 MR. CASE: This is the addendum you are going
5 to read that I haven't seen.

6 DR. BARD: Yes, the addendum will read, and we
7 thought we would vote upon this part, Thereafter upon
8 petition of any eligible voter, filed no later than 9 10 days after such plan has become law, the Court of 10 Appeals for Maryland shall have original jurisdiction to 11 review such plan of redistricting and to grant such
12 legal or equitable relief as it may determine to be neces-
13 sary.

14 MR. CASE: That is what I had in mind.

15 DR. BARD: But we thought we better get a
16 thought on this part first.

17 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further question, comment
18 about the Section as it is presented in the Report? I
19 wanted to ask one question about the phrase in the third
20 line from the end, or if so enacted, is not then valid law.
21 What is meant by that?
