

1 There might be such cases. However, the addendum would
2 take care of that.

3 THE CHAIRMAN: I take it, if that were the
4 case, Judge Adkins, that you don't need that phrase, be-
5 cause it would then not have been enacted into law by
6 later decision of the Supreme Court, it is not a valid law.

7 DR. BARD: Or it be a petition filed no later
8 than 10 days after. If the addendum is adopted, I don't
9 see why you need it.

10 THE CHAIRMAN: Do you delete it?

11 DR. BARD: I delete it.

12 THE CHAIRMAN: You delete the phrase, or if
13 so enacted, is not then valid law. Any further comment
14 or question about the Section as it is presented? Then
15 go ahead with the addendum.

16 DR. BARD: Shall I read it again?

17 THE CHAIRMAN: Yes, slowly.

18 DR. BARD: Thereafter, upon petition of any 19 eligible voter filed no later than 10 days after such
20 plan has become law, the Court of Appeals for Maryland
21 shall have original jurisdiction to review such plan of
