

1 primarily the equal protection clause, and that the only
2 legal or equitable relief the court could grant would be
3 to send the plan back to the Governor and start the whole
4 process over again, and I am wondering if you would
5 accept the following language as insertion into what you
6 already have, where it says, The court may, blah, blah,
7 and may adopt, revise or modify the plan or grant such
8 other legal or equitable relief as it may deem necessary.

9 DR. BARD: That is rule.

10 THE CHAIRMAN: You accept the language?

11 DR. BARD: Yes.

12 MR. CLAGETT: Why couldn't you shorten that
13 and say, determine the matter?

14 THE CHAIRMAN: I don't think that meets
15 Mr. Case's Report.

16 MR. CLAGETT: If they have jurisdiction, what
17 you want them to do is to decide it.

18 MR. CASE: They may decide it is a valid plan,
19 but since the right to draw a new plan is strictly a
20 Federal question, the court may adopt, revise or modify
21 the plan or grant such other legal or equitable relief.
