

1 Assembly in special session upon the written request of 2 a majority of the members of both Houses thereof. That 3 at least, while not giving you a continuing General
4 Assembly which has been voted down, would put the General
5 Assembly at least on a level equal with the Governor.
6 If the Governor has the power to call that body in 7 special session, it seems to me not inappropriate to 8 give the body itself the power to convene itself because 9 you might have an important matter before the State,
10 the Governor and General Assembly at loggerheads, the 11 Governor not wanting to face up to the problem and the 12 pressures from the people to face up to it in that type 13 of situation unless the Governor agreed to convene the 14 Legislature in special session --

15 MR. MILLER: That approach would be entirely
16 agreeable to those of us that would take the Legislative 17 branch out of being as second class citizens.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Case?

19 MR. CASE: Mr. Chairman, I want to approach
20 this matter as apparently I must again in the spirit in 21 which Mrs. Bothe spoke. This question was debated for
