

1 putting that aside, I certainly think from the point of
2 view of the parliamentary procedure this is a new matter.
3 I agree with you and Mrs. Bothe we have been over the other
4 point and have lost it.

5 THE CHAIRMAN: Read the language again.

6 MR. SCANLAN: Added to the last sentence,
7 instead of a period after, time, that would become a
8 comma, followed by this language, and must convene the 9 General Assembly in special session upon the written
10 request of a majority of the members of both Houses
11 thereof. I don't think it would be abused.

12 MR. CASE: May I speak to this? Before
13 getting into the merits of that, would you accept an
14 amendment to your amendment that it be three-fifths
15 of the members in writing instead of a majority since
16 three-fifths are required to extend the session from 17 70 to 100 days?

18 MR. SCANLAN: I would.

19 MR. MILLER: I would so long as it is in 20 their power.

21 THE CHAIRMAN: All right.
