

1 procedures set up by the Committee.

2 MR. BOND: No, I think it is better to have it
3 in the Constitution.

4 DR. BURDETTE: I would accept the statement,
5 they have the power to subpoena, providing the power of
6 subpoenas under the protection of the Constitution.

7 MR. BOND: The Fifth Amendment is in effect
8 no matter where you are.

9 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further comment?

10 MRS. BOTHE: As I understand Section 21, I
11 think the grand inquisition has only been called a couple
12 of times that I can remember and Section 24, the way it
13 apparently reads, while it gives all these powers to 14 the Legislature, does it only in the event of a grand
15 inquisition which is an extraordinary proceeding? I
16 am not at all sure that it is desirable to give the 17 committees in the Legislature individually subpoena
18 powers of any sort.

19 MR. MILLER: We are not. We are giving it
20 to the Legislature, and they can give it to the committee
21 or not as they saw fit.
