

1 lessens its scope? I am just asking, if we achieve
2 the effect of what you want.

3 DR. JENKINS: I thought I tried to make that
4 clear. Granted, that in general terms, this might be
5 covered by the due process, the equal protection state-
6 ment here originally presented in Section 4. I tried to 7 make it clear that I think that it is important because 8 of our history and because of social conditions that the 9 specific statement appear in the Constitution.

10 MR. HAILE: Just as the religion statement
11 appears?

12 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Haile, so that we know
13 precisely what we are talking about, would you state the 14 language that you suggested that I think Dr. Jenkins
15 accepted?

16 MR. HAILE: No person shall --

17 THE CHAIRMAN: Insert where?

18 MR. HAILE: Right in the middle of Section 4,
19 after the first sentence.

20 THE CHAIRMAN: After the word, laws?

21 MR. HAILE: Yes, after the word, laws.
