

1 MR. SAYRE: If we confine ourselves to the
2 wording that is already here, isn't she going beyond?

3 THE CHAIRMAN: No, she is raising the question
4 as to the omission from the wording here of some pro-
5 hibition against wiretapping. I think she is in order.

6 MR. SAYRE: That is in addition.

7 THE CHAIRMAN: It may be, but I think she is
8 in order.

9 MR. SAYRE: I would like to raise the point
10 that my vote is not necessary any longer. Just say, By 11 affirmation, period. Could I offer that as an amendment?

12 THE CHAIRMAN: All right. Do you want to 13 comment on it, Mr. Gentry?

14 MR. GENTRY: Only to say just what was said,
15 we haven't eliminated oath. It is, Oath or affirmation,
16 which is not in the present Declaration.

17 THE CHAIRMAN: His suggestion is, you do
18 eliminate the words.

19 MR. SAYRE: Affirmation is adequate, and there-
20 fore that is all you should require.

21 MR. GENTRY: Again, we felt there was a lot
