

1 of benefit in copying wherever possible the United States
2 Article 4 language, and we verbatim copied it.

3 THE CHAIRMAN: Do you make motion?

4 MR. SAYRE: I move that we strike the word,
5 oath or.

6 THE CHAIRMAN: Is there a second? It fails
7 for lack of a second. Mrs. Bothe?

8 MRS. BOTHE: I won't repeat the question be-
9 cause I think it was heard before, which was to the 10 Committee, as to whether or not it had considered the 11 possibility of adding to the search and seizure section
12 of the Declaration of Rights some protection against 13 invasion of privacy by electronic devices, such as is 14 proposed in the model State Constitution.

15 MR. GENTRY: I had thought that the seven or 16 eight of us that met last night after midnight had 17 settled that problem.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: Was there a rump session?

19 MR. SCANLAN: Apparently our own wires were 20 tapped.

21 MRS. BOTHE: I was going to bring it up anyway.