

1 THE CHAIRMAN: Strike the word, punishment,
2 and insert, life or limb?

3 MR. CLAGETT: That doesn't go far enough.

4 THE CHAIRMAN: Is there a second?

5 MR. HAILE: I will second it.

6 THE CHAIRMAN: Now, the discussion. The Chair-
7 man of the Committee first, Mr. Gentry?

8 MR. GENTRY: This was considered, and the 9 reason we dropped, life or limb, is because it doesn't go
10 far enough. This doesn't include cases of fines, it
11 doesn't include cases where there could be probation,
12 suspended sentence, or any of that area, and that was the 13 reason we felt -- I would have no hesitancy putting,
14 criminal punishment, but let's not go to, life or limb.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further discussion?

16 MRS. BOTHE: Going on the principles of the 17 Committee, life or limb, has been construed, and in 18 many cases to include less than penalties, imprisonment
19 or capital punishment. If you are going to use the body
20 of law, it has been determined to construe these words.
21 There is no question at all.
