3 Dr. Clinton Ivan Winslow, Consultant
4 Dr. John H. Michener, Research Assistant

5 THE CHAIRMAN: The first item should be an 6 expression of thanks from the head of the table for the 7 excellent attendance at a meeting on a beautiful Sunday
8 afternoon in the fall such as we have today. I think it 9 bespeaks the desire all of us have to finish our task we 10 have before us. I would like formally to extend a wel-
11 come to Mr. John Mitchell, a new Member of the Commission 12 appointed by the Governor a few weeks ago in place of 13 Judge Ridgely Melvin. I have introduced Mr. Mitchell
14 personally to everyone at the table.

15 Mr. Mitchell, we welcome you, and we will load 16 you with plenty of work. Mr. Brooks has assembled all of 17 the materials which every Member of the Commission has, 18 but they are much too bulky to give you today. The 19 arrangements will be made to get it to you. The specimen
20 that you got today is just a fragment of the work. You 21 have had for about a month, I think, the minutes of the
