

1 vice of the University of Maryland had a very wide
 2 coverage. The problem here, of course, was to get lists
 3 of addresses and actually get the mailing accomplished.
 4 We had a great deal of help in a number of ways. One of 5 the large insurance companies made available its list
 6 of some 40,000 policyholders in the State of Maryland,
 7 durnished us with address slips. We were able to get 8 the City of Baltimore to give us address slips on the 9 entire -- list of employees of the City, some 30,000, 10 and similar arrangements with other groups so that the 11 pamphlets had a wide coverage.

12 The problem with the pamphlets was that the 13 mailing was not first class mailing, and the actual 14 delivery of some of them was a little too close to the 15 election. The Citizens Committee is preparing a report of 16 its activities at our request because we think this will 17 be valuable in undertaking a campaign to educate the 18 public as to the importance of voting next spring on the 19 election for delegates to the Convention.

20 In this connection, I would like to urge every 21 Member of the Commission wherever you can, to accept
