

1 late evening session doesn't pay dividends, because I
2 think all of us by late afternoon were beginning to 3 tire. It was with this in mind that we arranged the 4 social break for Monday evening so that we will have a 5 chance to relax and remain together and discuss some of 6 the problems that we may be considering. With this same
7 thought in mind, while we have an evening session tonight,
8 it will not be a long session. I would hope to keep it
9 down to an hour, certainly not longer than an hour and a 10 half, so that by 9 or 9:30 we could be free of the meeting.

11 We will still have plenty of reading to do,
12 but also some opportunity for a little relaxation before
13 the meeting tomorrow. I personally would like to suggest 14 that our sessions tomorrow and Tuesday morning begin at 15 8:30 in the morning. I make that suggestion because of 16 the great amount of material that we have to go over at 17 this session. Rather than decide that, I will put the 18 question to you before we adjourn tonight.

19 I am not sure what time dinner will be this 20 evening. We will have dinner arranged for all of us 21 together, probably around 6 o'clock, and if so, we will
