

1 a report ultimately to the Governor and the Legislature
2 and people of the State, not only as to what we recommend,
3 but as to why we recommend what we do.

4 Therefore, we want to continue with the trans-
5 cript but in order that it be meaningful, please keep 6 in mind the very simply rules that we must observe, wait
7 until the Chairman recognizes you before you speak, both 8 so that the record gives me a chance to speak your name 9 and it will appear in the record, and also to aid the 10 reporter.

11 Secondly, the debate will be more orderly. Be-12 cause of the great amount of material we must get over,
13 I do not want to limit debate, but insofar as is possible,
14 say what you want to say at one time, and then do not 15 repeat again in the same debate. I want to state again 16 the few rules governing debate and discussion of the 17 Reports that we worked out at the last meeting and which 18 I think by and large worked satisfactorily.

19 This is not like a formal session of the Legis-
20 lature, for instance. It is more in the nature of con-
21 sideration by the Committee as a whole and yet we have to
