

1 have some rules. We can't shut off all reconsideration
2 of matters that have been discussed before because too
3 often at the meetings where they are discussed, we have 4 not had great opportunity to study the material at length.
5 Therefore, there will not be an ironclad rule on recon-
6 sideration of matters that have been considered by the 7 Commission before. Instead, we will follow the same
8 rules as we did at the last meeting. Any matter may be 9 reconsidered on motion of the Committee. Any matter
10 may be reconsidered on motion of a Member provided it is 11 approved by a majority of the Commission.

12 I request both Committee Chairmen and Members
13 not to ask for reconsideration of the matters unless you
14 feel that it is vital, that it be discussed again and re-
15 considered.

16 Now, one slight correction in addition to the 17 agenda which you received in the mail. The indication 18 was that at this evening's meeting we would consider the 19 Fourth Report of the Committee on Miscellaneous Provisions.
20 We will consider that Report but only the portion thereof
21 dealing with militia. We will not consider the portion
