

1 connection with these changes as well as the Committee
2 as a whole. At the meeting held on August 21, 1966, the 3 Commission considered drafts of 18 sections of the new 4 Constitution dealing with the Legislative Department
5 as submitted in our Report. Some sections were approved
6 as submitted. Others were revised and still others were 7 referred back to us for further study, so this Sixth Re-8 port which you have with you will include action on the 9 part of our subcommittee in terms of revisions that you
10 submit as well as revisions noted here that took place
11 as a result of the Commission recommendations at the 12 last meeting.

13 In this Report, the Committee on the Legisla-
14 tive Department presents drafts of those sections which 15 were revised or referred back to us for revision. The 16 Committee also submits comments on four sections of the 17 present Constitution dealing with the Legislative Depart-
18 ment, that is over and above what we reported last time.

19 There are sections that will be new in our 20 commentary. Now, the first item of importance the Com-
21 mittee, in the sections it is resubmitting has placed all
