

1 sion of that question.

2 MR. SAYRE: This is on extraordinary measures?

3 THE CHAIRMAN: Extraordinary measures, whether 4 there should be uniformity in the provision as to the 5 ratio of vote required whenever an extraordinary vote is 6 required under the Constitution.

7 DR. BARD: May I make one final comment, that 8 is, that it would be possible under this two-thirds vote
9 to have something like 46 Members opposed to an extra-
10 ordinary action and the extraordinary action still take 11 place. So when we are talking about undue restrictions,
12 as you up these numbers which we have done by raising
13 the membership of both the Senate and the House of Dele-
14 gates, you still have a very large number that could be 15 block action.

16 This is the point that we are taking, and we 17 feel that if it is to be extraordinary, then it ought to 18 be under circumstances which safeguard the State. That is 19 the final point.

20 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further discussion on the 21 question of uniformity at this time? If not, we will put
