

1 the question. The question arises on the recommendation
2 of the Committee that in all instances where under the 3 Constitution an extraordinary vote will be required that 4 whatever that extraordinary vote be, it be uniform.

5 Ready for the question? All those in favor
6 of uniformity, signify by a show of hands.

7 Contrary? The motion is lost, 7 to 13.

8 Now, I think probably, although I really don't 9 know, I think probably we would save time on taking up 10 first the situations dealing with the Legislature where 11 an extraordinary vote would be required and consider 12 separately for each whether the vote be a proportion of 13 the total membership or of those present, and if so, 14 how many.

15 Dr. Bard, which one do you want to take up 16 first?

17 DR. BARD: I think under the circumstances, the 18 only thing for us to do is to vote on them. It seems to 19 me, if we are not going to be uniform, then we vote on 20 them in terms of the application, and as it is applied in 21 this document as we are going through. I don't see any
