

1 fulfilled all the requirements, I think that ought to be 2 opened up to the Commission. If the Commission feels 3 otherwise --

4 THE CHAIRMAN: You might make that clear.

5 JUDGE ADKINS: I don't think your language is 6 clear because later on you say enacted into law.

7 MR. CLAGETT: Is the question now we are 8 talking about, if there is a difference between the 9 Governor's plan and the General Assembly's plan?

10 THE CHAIRMAN: No, the question is whether or 11 not the General Assembly in enacting its plan can enact 12 a plan that is not subject to veto.

13 MR. CLAGETT: If it enacts the Governor's plan,
14 then we are talking about an absurdity. If it enacts 15 one which is completely different and contrary to what 16 the Governor wants, then we have a point.

17 THE CHAIRMAN: So that is the question. Let's 18 find out first what the Committee intends to recommend;
19 then we can deal with the amendment.

20 DR. BARD: The logic would be against permitting
21 the Governor's veto because otherwise the Governor would
