

1 have his say anyway, and the intent here --

2 THE CHAIRMAN: Subject to being overridden.

3 DR. BARD: Right. The intent here is to urge 4 the General Assembly to come up with a good plan. That 5 is the intent. The moment the confrontation takes place,
6 the Governor could possibly have his own view. At least,
7 this was our intention.

8 THE CHAIRMAN: The recommendation of the Com-
9 mittee, then, as I understand it, is that the plan to be 10 submitted to the General Assembly is to be submitted by 11 it without being subject to gubernatorial veto?

12 DR. BARD: Of course, it would be subject to 13 review by the Supreme Court.

14 THE CHAIRMAN: I understand, Mr. Case?

15 MR. CASE: Mr. Chairman, in discussing this 16 idea some time ago, I thought it would be based on the 17 idea of a strong executive and the work that could be 18 done by and for him in proposing the plan. You will re-
19 call that there was some conversation at the Easton
20 meeting about a blue ribbon commission or committee being 21 appointed by the Governor who would then take that work,
