

1 next, the second successive biennial election.

2 THE CHAIRMAN: Dr. Bard or Dr. Michener,
3 would you comment on that?

4 DR. BARD: It is certainly worth considering.

5 THE CHAIRMAN: That still doesn't reach
6 Dr. Burdette's point, and I am not clear, you say it is 7 an important question, but what would be the recommenda-
8 tion of the Committee?

9 Mr. Della?

10 MR. DELLA: Dr. Burdette's point was the person
11 would be appointed by the Governor, would be on the 12 ballot approved by the people. He would not have any 13 candidates running against him.

14 MR. CASE: What is his point? Will somebody
15 state it?

16 THE CHAIRMAN: His point is, if the Governor
17 makes no appointment, that there is nothing in the 18 Section which gives anybody the right to be nominated and 19 stand for election. Suppose there is a vacancy six months 20 before an election. This Section talks only about the 21 vacancy being filled by appointment. It doesn't say
