

1 DR. BURDETTE: Let me say since I am not a
2 lawyer, you have brought up a perfectly valid type of
3 maneuver.

4 THE CHAIRMAN: I think I was in error.

5 DR. BURDETTE: All right, I am satisfied.

6 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further comment?

7 MR. CASE: Mr. Chairman, I have one question
8 and one comment.

9 The question is, does this Section, Dr. Bard,
10 or any of your work product take care of the case
11 where a man has been elected, that is the election has
12 been held, he's got the votes, so he's elected; but before
13 the General Assembly is formed, he dies. In other words,
14 he has been chosen for the General Assembly and dies
15 before the General Assembly.

16 DR. BURDETTE: I think it does take care of it.
17 It is a vacancy. They can tend to the vacancy.

18 JUDGE ADKINS: He presents himself to be sworn 19 in?

20 DR. BARD: I would think it would.

21 MR. CASE: That was my question. I wasn't sure.
