

1 expires, and 89 days from the biennial general election,
2 the Governor appoints a substitute. Now, does that 3 substitute have a clear field and have the right to dis-
4 franchise the voters from voting for the others who have 5 filed in the normal course? It would under this language,
6 wouldn't it?

7 JUDGE ADKINS: The appointee in no event could 8 serve beyond the unexpired term of the man whom he was 9 replacing, and if his term expired, if you are envision-
10 ing a situation where people are filing for the new term,
11 then the problem wouldn't arise.

12 MR. SYKES: I suggest the language doesn't 13 say he can serve only the unexpired term in any event.

14 THE CHAIRMAN: Well, might we cover that by ask-
15 ing the Committee to take that suggestion into considera-
16 tion?

17 DR. BARD: Certainly.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further question on this
19 Section? I suggest to you a possible hiatus that you 20 might have an appointment. Two years before the end of 21 the term, and the person who was appointed would have his
