

1 I think Dr. Jenkins raised this question at the last
2 general meeting here, and so we have revised it, we think,
3 and that takes care of the situation. It reads, No
4 member of the General Assembly shall, during the term of 5 office for which he was selected, be appointed to any 6 office which shall have been created, or the salary or 7 profits of which shall have been increased, by the 8 General Assembly during such term.

9 He could assume an office where the profits or 10 salary had been increased but not as an action by the 11 General Assembly.

12 MR. GENTRY: The words, or profits, what do 13 they add to?

14 DR. BARD: They may be peripheral advantages,
15 emoluments, they could be expenses, et cetera.

16 MR. SAYRE: Commissions, fees. Wouldn't it
17 be better to just --

18 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further comment or suggestion
19 as to Section 11? If not, move to Section 12 on Page 6.

20 DR. BARD: Section 12. Members of the General
21 Assembly shall not be liable in any civil action or criminal
