

1 prosecution for any words used in any proceedings of the 2 General Assembly.

3 What we want to get over here was that they 4 were words whether they be spoken or written, whether 5 they be in debate in the House or Senate or in Committee, 6 so we thought we would just use the term, words, for any 7 words to take care of written or spoken and in any pro-
8 ceedings to take care of any of the peripheral assign-9 ments tied in with his responsibilities as a Member of 10 the General Assembly.

11 THE CHAIRMAN: Any question, any comment? If 12 not, move to Section 13, Page 6.

13 DR. BARD: Section 13. Each House shall be the 14 final judge of the qualifications and election of its 15 Members, as prescribed by the Constitution and laws of 16 the State. Each House shall appoint its own officers and 17 determine its rules of procedure, and shall have power 18 to compel the attendance and testimony of witnesses and 19 the production of records and papers either before such 20 House as a whole or before any Committee thereof; provid-
21 ing that the General Assembly shall by law protect
