

1 MR. BOND: I can give one specific example,
2 Mrs. Bothe, and that is on the revolving credit bill.
3 The revolving credit bill, I am told by people on the 4 Legislative Committee and also by Attorney Hoff, repre-
5 sented certain clients, if the facts had been presented that 6 the Legislative Committee wanted, perhaps a proper credit 7 bill could have come forth. There are two terms where 8 the Legislature has not been able to ascertain the 9 facts involving credit, mercantile credit. That is a 10 specific example.

11 DR. BARD: Mr. Chairman, I just make one com-
12 ment. What happened last time and the discussion that 13 is taking place here again makes me feel that we really 14 are as of one. We want this power limited. Everyone
15 on the Committee felt very strongly in this respect.
16 We feel that it ought to be germane. We think it ought 17 to be used only when it is important. Furthermore, we 18 want to find some way to protect the power. I don't 19 think the debate is in philosophical belief here. The 20 debate is rather in the wording, and I suspect that we 21 have not worded <sup>this</sup> /in its best form.
