

1 seems to me has not been quite met by the debate here
2 today.

3 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Clagett?

4 MR. CLAGETT: Mr. Chairman, picking up right
5 there, I want to clarify the remarks that I made earlier
6 because I thought when I was agreeing with Judge Adkins
7 that I was agreeing that the General Assembly should have 8 the power to compel the attendance of witnesses and the 9 production of records, but I was trying to prevent the 10 exercise and use of that power from an abuse.

11 I did not mean that it should be unduly re-
12 stricted as it is now, eliminated, and I agree that I
13 think we are approaching it from the wrong point of view.
14 I am now satisfied in reading the language that the 15 Committee has come up with here, that what we are doing 16 is really doing the job that the General Assembly will 17 have to wrestle with through an appropriate committee which 18 can study the background and the deeds and necessities
19 and do by law what we are attempting to do, by a search
20 for words or phrases, either by restriction or by elimina-
21 tion.
