

1 THE CHAIRMAN: Now, does the Committee still
2 recommend what is drafted here, that is two-thirds of all
3 Members, meaning the elected Members?

4 DR. BARD: We have a feeling that the latter
5 expulsion is a pretty serious extraordinary event, and 6 we think the two-thirds would be more in order than 7 four-fifths.

8 THE CHAIRMAN: Any comment or questions? Any 9 discussion?

10 Mr. Sayre?

11 MR. SAYRE: This raises one of my questions as 12 to whether you could be expelled a second time for the 13 same offense.

14 DR. BARD: Say that again.

15 MR. SAYRE: Can you be expelled a second time
16 for the same offense?

17 THE CHAIRMAN: What do you mean by the second
18 time? After you have been reelected or something?

19 MR. SAYRE: It is possible. For instance,
20 let's take two occasions, one you are expelled for dis-
21 orderly conduct, you get reelected, and let's say you
