

1 broad concept that we have set forth, Mr. Sayre, through-
2 out, namely, that certainly we have to have faith in this
3 body that they are giving more and more power to.

4 Dr. Winslow has a point.

5 THE CHAIRMAN: Dr. Winslow?

6 DR. WINSLOW: In reference to Judge Adkins'
7 question about punishment, would you be better satisfied
8 if the word were, disciplined? I would.

9 JUDGE ADKINS: I think this is a fairly broad
10 power to say, may punish a Member without any limitation.

11 THE CHAIRMAN: Let me call your attention --
12 Mr. Brooks has just handed me, called my attention to 13 Section 23 of Article III of the present Constitution
14 which says, Each House may punish by imprisonment during
15 the session of the General Assembly any person not a
16 Member for disrespect or disorderly behavior in its 17 presence or for obstructing any of its proceedings or any
18 of its officers in the execution of their duties, provided
19 such imprisonment shall not at any one time exceed ten
20 days.

21 DR. BARD: It is Section 19, Mr. Chairman.
