

1 vided by law which would be other than Members of the
2 Senate and House, and expulsion from the Legislature would
3 be under the previous Section and would not be by process
4 of impeachment.

5 MR. CLAGETT: Assuming you are impeached,
6 then what happens?

7 THE CHAIRMAN: Who is impeached?

8 MR. CLAGETT: The man who is being impeached
9 by the House, tried by the Senate, and by a two-thirds
10 concurrence has been convicted. What happens to him?

11 THE CHAIRMAN: He vacates office.

12 MR. CLAGETT: It doesn't say so.

13 DR. BURDETTE: It needs to say, shall be con-
14 victed, but no person shall be convicted -- that is con-
15 victed and removed from office without the concurrence.

16 THE CHAIRMAN: Isn't that implicit in the 17 word, impeachment?

18 DR. BURDETTE: No.

19 MRS. BOTHE: Does it necessarily carry with it
20 the loss of office?

21 MR. CASE: No. One president of the United
