

1 moral reprimand.

2 On Page 22, Section 26, Article III, would 3 mean that no Governor of Maryland could be removed from 4 office by impeachment.

5 THE CHAIRMAN: I wouldn't agree with that con-
6 clusion.

7 DR. BURDETTE: He could be impeached, convicted,
8 but that is only a moral reprimand.

9 THE CHAIRMAN: It seems to me the discussion
10 points up there is a diversion of views as to the word, 11 impeachment. Can the Committee clarify it?

12 MR. SAYRE: I am thinking of some language
13 that could be tacked on here for the penalty to be pro-
14 vided by law.

15 DR. BURDETTE: He could be removed from office.

16 MR. SAYRE: Yes. I like this language this 17 is closer to the existing Constitution, and if it is 18 appropriate, I would move to substitute the Section that 19 reads, the Governor, the heads of the principal depart-20 ments, the judicial officers and such other officers of 21 the State as may be designated by law are subject to im-
