

1 but as a matter of drafting I would prefer the first
2 sentence to be as I suggested it.

3 THE CHAIRMAN: Can you give me that language,
4 Mr. Sykes?

5 MR. SYKES: The State shall incur no indebted-
6 ness except for a public purpose and in such manner and
7 upon such terms and conditions as the General Assembly
8 may prescribe.

9 DR. BURDETTE: May I make a suggestion?

10 THE CHAIRMAN: Just a second, Dr. Burdette.
11 The phrase, shall incur no indebtedness, would you accept
12 shall not incur indebtedness?

13 DR. BURDETTE: My thought was, shall incur
14 indebtedness only. The first part of the sentence doesn't
15 go with the second, but this is a style matter, and it
16 will have to be a style matter.

17 THE CHAIRMAN: Do you accept the change,
18 Mr. Sykes?

19 MR. SYKES: I don't think it makes any differ-
20 ence.

21 THE CHAIRMAN: Just so we know what we are
