

1 MR. SYKES: This is a new motion.

2 THE CHAIRMAN: Would you state again what your
3 suggestion language is, Mr. Miller?

4 MR. MILLER: I would amend, and the language
5 is not entirely mine; thanks to my good advisor, here,
6 but the General Assembly shall have the power to incur
7 indebtedness only for public purpose -- for a public pur-
8 pose, and in such manner and upon such terms and conditions
9 as the General Assembly may prescribe.

10 THE CHAIRMAN: I would suggest to you that that 11 language puts you in exactly the dilemma that you had 12 initially. It looks like you are putting a limitation on 13 the General Assembly, not on anybody else. You don't say
14 that the State shall have.

15 MR. MILLER: Perhaps we started to change too
16 many words; the State shall have that.

17 THE CHAIRMAN: If you do that, you are back exact-
18 ly to the language that Mr. Sykes had suggested.

19 MR. MILLER: Am I?

20 THE CHAIRMAN: Yes, sir.

21 MR. MILLER: I will offer it if he doesn't want
