

1 the power. It seems to me that the sentence is stating
2 very succinctly, very clearly and very plainly what all of
3 us, and I don't think there is any disagreement on prin-
4 ciple, are trying to say. I think Mr. Haile has stated
5 it very well, and I don't believe we can improve it by
6 adding two words and taking out one phrase.

7 Any further discussion?

8 MR. CLAGETT: Question.

9 THE CHAIRMAN: Are you ready for the question?

10 All those in favor of the amendment, which deletes the 11 words, have the power, and inserts the words, only and 12 an, signify by a show of hands. Contrary. The motion
13 is lost, 2 to 16.

14 Any further discussion about the first sentence?

15 JUDGE ADKINS: This is a very minor point, but
16 hasn't our practice been to say that the General Assembly
17 may by law prescribe?

18 THE CHAIRMAN: Yes.

19 JUDGE ADKINS: Should not the words, by law,
20 be inserted between may and prescribe?

21 THE CHAIRMAN: The purpose of that, Mr. Case,
