

1 as on a general obligation indebtedness, even though the
2 Legislature had in so many words said that it would,
3 because it didn't include a pledge of the full faith
4 and credit and unlimited taxing power.

5 MRS. FREEDLANDER: You are saying that the act
6 must include this pledge. Therefore, the act is an
7 authorization based on the inclusion of such a pledge,
8 because the Constitution is requiring such a pledge in 9 such an act.

10 MR. CASE: If it is to be a general obligation
11 bond in fact, it must include the pledge, and if it
12 doesn't include the pledge, then it may be something, but 13 it is not a general obligation bond.

14 THE CHAIRMAN: Even though the statute purports
15 to call it such?

16 MR. CASE: That is right.

17 THE CHAIRMAN: Dr. Burdette?

18 DR. BURDETTE: I would like to revert to Mrs.
19 Freedlander's question, to the Chairman of the Committee.
20 Mrs. Freedlander is talking about a question of style,
21 and as the Chairman of the Committee on Style, I should be
