

1 help to clean up language a bit. This is terribly
2 awkward language, but maybe it is necessary.

3 THE CHAIRMAN: In line 7, the second suggestion
4 would be that between, so, and authorize, you would insert
5 the words, purported to be, so it would read, the obliga-
6 tion is so purported to be authorized?

7 DR. BURDETTE: That makes it worse.

8 THE CHAIRMAN: I understand.

9 MR. CASE: It is surplusage, but it doesn't change
10 it.

11 DR. BURDETTE: Do we have to have, purported,
12 in here?

13 MR. CASE: Yes.

14 DR. BURDETTE: In the first part?

15 MR. CASE: Yes. What you are doing here is 16 contemplating the General Assembly trying to do this,
17 and failing it. Do you follow me?

18 DR. BURDETTE: I see, but then from 7 to 8,
19 one isn't crossing the --

20 THE CHAIRMAN: Dr. Burdette, you said, but I see
21 but then in 7 to 8, and we don't have the rest of your
