

1           MR. CASE: I would hate to do that because the 2 word, such, you see ties into the sentence above that,
3 such indebtedness. We are talking about general obliga-
4 tion bonds. I don't see that it adds anything. I don't 5 think it adds anything.

6           MR. BROOKS: Could you say, this indebtedness?

7           THE CHAIRMAN: The point I made, when you 8 say, such indebtedness, you are referring back to an 9 indebtedness of the State and in the first clause in Lines
10 5 and 6, you are referring to the possibility that there
11 may be an indebtedness, but not one of this character, 12 not such an indebtedness, so that you would then say, if 13 you followed my suggestion, unless the act of the General
14 Assembly authorizing the creation of an indebtedness
15 includes such an irrevocable pledge, the obligation so 16 authorized shall not be considered an indebtedness of the 17 State.

18           MR. CASE: To me, it doesn't add anything.

19           THE CHAIRMAN: It would authorize an indebted-
20 ness that is not an indebtedness of the State, a revenue
21 bond, for instance?
