

1 bond counsel, not me, and checked over with a lot of
2 people and everybody understands it.

3 THE CHAIRMAN: Dr. Burdette?

4 DR. BURDETTE: I don't insist. I think it
5 hurts the symmetry of clear, straightforward English.

6 THE CHAIRMAN: Judge Adkins?

7 JUDGE ADKINS: I have a caveat here to the
8 use of the term, Comptroller. We have eliminated the
9 Comptroller as a constitutional officer subject to, I
10 gather, further consideration between Mr. Case's Com-
11 mittee and my Committee. I wonder if maybe that ought 12 to be left open for the results?

13 MR. CASE: It is left open in substance.

14 JUDGE ADKINS: Comptroller might not be the 15 right fiscal officer.

16 THE CHAIRMAN: We are putting the word in
17 brackets to flag it for later action. Any further com-
18 ment on this sentence?

19 The next sentence, beginning on Line 15, All
20 State indebtedness shall mature within twenty-five years
21 from the time when such indebtedness is incurred.
