

1 THE CHAIRMAN: Yes, as in the Hopkins case
2 itself. It would go through the budget, would it not?

3 MR. CASE: It would have to, because -- it
4 would be in the supplemental -- I'm corrected on that.
5 It would be a supplemental appropriation.

6 THE CHAIRMAN: You mean it would be a supple-
7 mental appropriation bill, if it was a Hopkins situation,
8 where it was derived from a specific bond issue; but I'm
9 not thinking of that, Dick.

10 Take a regular grant of money to Hopkins in
11 exchange for senatorial scholarships.

12 MR. CASE: That's in the budget.

13 THE CHAIRMAN: That is a budget item and that
14 is a gift.

15 MR. CASE: That's right.

16 THE CHAIRMAN: Would that not pose a problem
17 with respect to passage of the budget?

18 MR. MILLER: Is this a gift or a purchase?

19 THE CHAIRMAN: I don't know. You could debate
20 that at length, but there are other illustrations, I am
21 sure. I am quite sure that the budget contains items
