5 of hands. Contrary? The motion carries, 18 to 1.

6 Now, there is no change in Section 8.

7 MR. MARTINEAU: Mr. Chairman, let me refer to 8 a change which we had actually included in both drafts
9 of Section 7. It is a little different than what we had 10 before and I do want to bring it to the attention of the 11 Commission.

12 We had merely provided in the original Section 7, 13 in the August 20th draft, that the administration of the 14 courts shall be governed by rule. We have expanded that 15 somewhat in this draft, in both drafts of Section 7, which 16 is that the Supreme Court by rule and the General Assembly
17 by law, skipping down to Number 3, shall have power to 18 prescribe regulations governing the administration of the 19 courts. Then we went on, officers of the judicial depart-20 ment and officers of the executive department to the 21 extent that their duties directly relate to the enforcement
