

1 question on Paragraph B? If not, we will move to Section
2 3-A, Page 17.

3 MR. MARTINEAU: Section 3, the Appellate Court.
4 A. Jurisdiction. The Appellate Court shall have such
5 jurisdiction as provided by law.

6 This is exactly the same provision as we had
7 the last time.

8 DR. BURDETTE: Mr. Chairman, would the Committee
9 agree to such language as the Appellate Court shall have 10 the jurisdiction provided by law? Once before we had this
11 problem of the rather queasy language of saying such juris-
12 diction as provided by law, when really what that means is 13 such jurisdiction as be, or may be, with some verb in there,
14 provided by law.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: Would it meet your approval if 16 we said may be after as?

17 DR. BURDETTE: Yes.

18 MR. MARTINEAU: I think the Committee on Style
19 is going to have the last word on this.

20 THE CHAIRMAN: I am glad to hear you make that
21 comment. I've been trying to get that changed for a long
