

1 giving that county a judge to take care of the judicial
2 business in that court.

3 MR. MILLER: My point is that you say there
4 must be an associate judge in each county.

5 THE CHAIRMAN: He's not talking about the 6 question of language. It's the question of principle.
7 Mr. Sykes?

8 MR. SYKES: That doesn't accord with my recol-
9 lection or the printed comments. My understanding was that 10 the Superior Court was a State-wide court and it was going
11 to have a Chief Judge who was responsible to the Chief
12 Justice and this this Chief Judge was going to be essen-
13 tially an administrative judge with State-wide functions
14 and making him a resident of some county and saying that 15 you didn't have to have at least one other judge who was 16 resident in that county would take away from that county
17 the advantages of a resident judge, and I think the Com-
18 mittee meant exactly what it said.

19 It should have a comma after the word judge;
20 the Superior Court shall be composed of a Chief Judge, and 21 it makes no difference where that judge resides, but in
