

1 here as to language.

2 THE CHAIRMAN: No, I wouldn't think so. Here
3 I think you would want the word such.

4 MR. MARTINEAU: No, original jurisdiction pro-
5 vided by law.

6 THE CHAIRMAN: All right. Any question, comment?
7 Any discussion? The section reads, the District Court shall
8 have such original jurisdiction as provided by law.
9 Jurisdiction of the District Court shall be uniform through-
10 out the State.

11 Paragraph B, Page 22.

12 MRS. BOTHE: Mr. Eney, before we go on to that,
13 there were some questions in my mind when we discussed this
14 in committee, as to whether or not the District Court
15 jurisdiction should be uniform, particularly because it
16 takes the flexibility away to increase the jurisdiction
17 of the District Courts in the sparsely populated counties,
18 perhaps, to give them more work to do and completely
19 abrogates the possibility of making local adjustments in 20 the work loads in the District Court and the Superior Court.

21 I particularly wondered if Mr. Case, who I know
