

1 THE CHAIRMAN: What -- Calvert and Somerset?
2 What river?

3 MR. CLAGETT: The middle of the Bay. I'm not
4 talking about a river. You know what I'm talking about.
5 It's getting late.

6 MR. CASE: It's not that late.

7 MR. CLAGETT: They still have admirals and it's
8 still just a bay.

9 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further question? If not,
10 we will move on to Section C, Page 23.

11 MR. MARTINEAU: There may be commissioners of 12 the District Court in such numbers and with such qualifi-
13 cations as provided by Rule. They shall be appointed by
14 and serve at the pleasure of a judge of the District Court
15 who shall be so designated by Rule. Commissioners may,
16 in accordance with Rule, issue arrest warrants and determine
17 whether and in what amount bail is require.

18 I believe the only change in there is that we 19 provided that in the issuance of arrest warrants and
20 determining whether and what amount bail is required, that
21 it shall be done in accordance with Rule, to make sure that
