

1 constitution as to other offices, Judges, for instance,
2 which have no relation to the travel requirements.

3 MR. SAYRE: There could be flexibility as 4 to whether they could be a Judge serving a circuit from 5 which they are not a resident.

6 THE CHAIRMAN: It isn't true now.

7 MR. SAYRE: That is true but we are getting 8 more and more away from that as a trend.

9 DR. JENKINS: It seems this is a rather 10 innocuous item. First it is not going to happen often.
11 Second the decision is made by the electorate of the 12 district.

13 One other point that came up in Committee is 14 that in the future when we are going to have more
15 redistricting as a result of a census than we have now
16 this would enable an electorate to retain a representa-
17 tive who might be redistricted out of that particular 18 district. But the essential thing is it is up to the 19 people in that district. I just don't think this is 20 really objectionable.

21 DR. BARD: As some of you know, I have been
