

1 or is it used in the mathematical sense?

2 MR. MARTINEAU: It is a section of the --

3 THE CHAIRMAN: It is a fairly well understood
4 connotation in legal circles. For instance, the United
5 States District Court is sometimes divided in two divisions.
6 There are divisions --

7 DR. BARD: Coming after the word divide, in
8 the preceding sentence, is what causes the problem. Okay.

9 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further question, either on 10 that or on Paragraph C on Page 23?

11 MR. MITCHELL: Do I understand that C states
12 there will be one judge of the District Court who shall
13 appoint commissioners for the entire State?

14 MR. MARTINEAU: No.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Martineau's answer was no,
16 that was not intended.

17 MR. MARTINEAU: There will be one judge in 18 each district who will appoint for that district.

19 DR. BURDETTE: The language is clear that it is 20 one judge in each --

21 MR. MITCHELL: It states a judge in the District